50th ANNIVERSARY EDITION
Chicago Tribune

"Huston Smith's classic on the world's religions has justifiably become as venerable as the old texts he studies . . . I urge all readers to make it the core of their home library."
 —Thomas Moore, author of Care of the Soul

"The best one-volume book on world religions." —Library Journal

"Intelligent, clearly written . . . reveals the spirit of each faith."
 —The New York Times Book Review

Huston Smith's masterpiece explores the essential elements and teachings of the world's predominant faiths, including Hinduism, Buddhism, Confucianism, Taoism, Judaism, Christianity, Islam, and the native traditions of Australia, Africa, Oceania, and the Americas.

Emphasizing the inner—rather than the institutional—dimension of these religions, Smith devotes special attention to Zen and Tibetan Buddhism, Sufism, and the teachings of Jesus. He convincingly conveys the unique appeal and gifts of each of the traditions and reveals their hold on the human heart and imagination.

HUSTON SMITH is widely regarded as the most eloquent and accessible contemporary authority on the history of religions. He has taught at Washington University, M.I.T., Syracuse University, and the University of California at Berkeley. The recipient of twelve honorary degrees, Smith's fifteen books include his award-winning Why Religions Matter, as well as his autobiography, Tales of Wonder.
